

Your name is etched in glory, written in words of freedom with your sacrifice.

You became our breath.

You became the verses of our songs.

Your name shines eternally in Sri Lanka.

The motherland is now at peace.

We live each day

with your memories.

Forever, you will be a hero.

You are the Light of My Heart

In your absence,
even the moon
seems to fade away.

Your smile is the only thing that brings me happiness.

When you are near, my heart becomes calm.

When you stay away,
I can't bear it.

A world without you is a place without peace.

With tears in my eyes,

I find a song

murmuring on my lips.

Humanity

Say a word that does not hurt a heart, but helps to heal one.

Look at things with a smile, not with a grumpy mood.

See everything positively, not negatively.

Smile, not to make others uncomfortable, but from the bottom of your heart.
